The Art of Business

Corporate Membership at The Cornell Fine Arts Museum

At the Cornell, being a good corporate citizen comes with rewards. Membership at The Museum provides your company with the unique opportunity to inspire existing clients and engage the community while promoting your brand.

Partnering with us lets you pick the level that suits your goals –from basic market exposure, hosting a private event in either The Museum or our lush lakeside terrace, to sponsorship of a groundbreaking new exhibition or free admission.

With an array of options to market your company to the public, corporate membership at the Cornell provides the opportunity to give your clients the VIP treatment.

Your tax-deductible commitment provides vital support for The Museum’s mission to enrich our community and lets you join a group of influential leaders who are making an immediate impact! Thank you for your consideration.
